

NOAC 2024

CU Boulder

Re-Engaging an Arrowman

David Emery • demery\_bsa@hotmail.com

Meet Your Trainer

- Lodge: Wa-Hi-Nasa Lodge in Middle Tennessee Council
- Hometown: Pinckney, MI
- Fun Fact: The last time I was in boulder was in 2008, driving to the Olympic Trials in Eugene, OR from Tennessee.

David Emery

Learning Objectives

1. Understand the reasons why an Arrowman may become disengaged
2. Develop communication skills for initiating constructive conversations
3. Explore techniques for reconnecting disengaged Arrowmen

1. Becoming Disengaged

2. Starting Conversations

Starting Conversations

- Be open and receptive to feedback
- Seek first to understand
- Effective listening

3.

Re-Engaging

Re-Engaging

---

- Give purpose
- Providing new program or activities
- Special meals and receptions
- Alumni organization

Takeaway Challenge

Thank you!

Please take a moment to fill out the feedback form.

David Emery
demery_bsa@hotmail.com

