Session Narrative

Introduction

6 minutes

- A) Reflective (looking to the past)
- B) Prospective (looking to the future)
- C) Introspective (looking within self)
- D) Perspective (looking outward to others)

Where are you? Who are you? And, why are you here? You're part of a continuum. You have to see where you fit with those who came before you and with those who will come after you. Traditions are the conduit connecting the past to the future. Where you are and what you do is critical in shaping your destiny and the destiny of the Order.

Reflective

10 minutes

Reflective

- Dr. Goodman's vision of the Order
- Spirit of the Order
- Aspiring to catch the higher vision
- "Pause and look you back upon Scouting, its sign and motto you accepted."

Prospective

8 minutes

Prospective

- Lodge vision/personal vision----must coincide with and complement each other
- "You were sent to seek a vision of yourself and of your purpose"
- Life of cheerful Service

Introspective

8 minutes

Introspective

Individual introspection is necessary in finding our place in the direction the Lodge is moving “Know thyself”
You must know where you are in order to know where you are going

Perspective

10 minutes

Perspective

Mountain-top experiences provide for a 360 perspective
Perspectives are necessary for arrive at a focus
Working together—“let US try to find the Arrow.”

Takeaway Challenge

3 minutes

Please take out your notebook and pen. For the final three minutes, think about the role that you will be playing next year in the OA, or the role you hope to play. Write down three key ideas related to this session that you could help improve your chapter or lodge traditions. During your break time later today, share these with others in your chapter or lodge.
